this is done. Funds for that may be got if only there is the will to do this thing for the teacher. It is the will to improve the lot of the humble teacher that is required. Then the funds may be got from somewhere. So I pay my humble respects to Rajaji and request him once again to see that some tangible good is done to the teachers. I thank you, Sir."

MR. CHAIRMAN :—" The House will now adjourn and meet again at 4 p.m. to-morrow."
